San Patrignano is world's largest therapeutic community working for the last thirty years for the full recovery of those suffering from drug addiction.

Rehabilitation, professional training and social reintegration are the key concepts to have given a chance to more than 20, 000 young people to start anew without drugs.

Independently verified success rate of San Patrignano recovery programme is over 70%.

Since 1978, San Patrignano has taken in young people for free, offering them home, healthcare, legal assistance, and the opportunity to study, learn a job, change their lives, and regain their status as full members of society.

European Cities Against Drugs

In co-operation with

San Patrignano Community

San Patrignano

October 5-7, 2012

Addicted to life

The themes of the two days are related to drug addiction and youth social exclusion. The first day will promote a challenging debate on the role played by therapeutic communities facing the so called "normalisation of drugs". The second day will focus on the prevention model, presenting peer to peer approach and measuring its impact.
